Subscribers who fail to get The Ledger regularly will confer a favor by reporting the fact AT THE OFFICE.

The truth must be suppressed at all hazards. Hereafter THE LEDGER will "call down" every son-of-a-seacock who dares to mention the fact that any concern has closed its doors and thrown workmen out of employment.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND left Washington Saturday night, accompanied by Secretaries GRESHAM and CARLISLE, for another of the fishing trips which are his principal recreation. The party went in a Government vessel. While GROVER goes a-fishing the country goes to hell, and in both cases the people pay the freight.

MUNCIE, IND., May 12th.—The Muncie Flint Glass Works are idle, and 300 men are thrown out of work on account of 90 "carry-out boys" going out on a strike, demanding 65 cents per day, a 10 cent raise.—Bulletin.

Avant, neighbor! If you don't cease your "croaks" you'll drive the whole caravansary to the demmition bowwows. Take notice that you are hereby "called down."

WHEN the Democratic majority of the Senate Finance Committee insolently refused to grant public hearings on the Tariff they declared that such hearings were useless because a million circulars of inquiry were to be sent to manufacturers and business men asking for expert information in regard to the effect of proposed tariff changes. Democratic organs all over the country enthusiastically praised this scheme as a great advance over the tedious process of verbal hearings, and "pointed with pride" to it as an evidence that the Democratic leaders proposed to secure the fullest knowledge regarding every schedule before going ahead.

The circulars were mailed—or at least a pretense of mailing them was made—but the replies which, according to Democratic pledges were to be promptly published, have not seen the light. In the Senate a few days ago Mr. LODGE asked why these answers had not been printed. Senator VEST, whose discretion is by no means equal to his pugnacity, was goaded by the incisive remarks of the Massachusetts Senator into admitting that they had been suppressed because they were "offensive." In other words, the Democrats in the Finance Committee, after having promised to give the industries of the United States a public hearing through these official circulars, broke their promise because they found that the responses of practical business men were unanimous in condemning the foolish and wicked Democratic policy of tariff destruction.

Tactics of this sort, says The Press of New York, will surprise nobody. From the beginning the Democratic Tariff Bill has been steeped in deceit and trickery. The devices to which its supporters have resorted have been on a par with the shameless falsehoods through which the Democratic party gained control of the Government. The longer the bill has been before Congress the more corrupt it has become. In its present form it is largely the product of gigantic trusts, that have purchased licenses to plunder the people by methods which cannot be hidden much longer. The jobbery and dishonesty of the measure are as prominent as its bitter hostility to American interests. The infamous thing reeks with fraud, and honest and patriotic Senators will exert every effort to prevent the irretrievable disgrace of its passage.

Hon. John T. Smoot of Bath has been appointed to represent the Ninth District at the Southern Interstate Immigration and Industrial Convention, to be held at Augusta, Ga., May 30th.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—as occasion required, and always keep a bottle of it in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best liniment I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, Ohio. 50 cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. The Monk!

By MATTHEW G. LEWIS, (MONK LEWIS.)

Mr. Lewis was a member of the British Parliament, and his book became so popular in England a hundred years ago that it gained for him the title of "Monk Lewis."

It is a fine piece of classic composition, and after being out of print for many years it has been republished from the original text.

It is far superior to "Mavis Monk" and books of that character.
